LABOR DAY, 1902.

A Proclamation by the Governor.

TERRITORY OF ARIZONA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1894, the first Monday in September is designated as a legal holiday, to be known as Labor Day,

THEREFORE, I, Alexander O. Brodie, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, do hereby recommend that all establishments of industry and places of business within the Territory be closed on Monday, September, 1, 1902. and that, in every way possible, employers co-operate with employees in worthy recognition of the dignity of labor, and in becoming observation of Labor Day.

A general observance of the day, wisely set apart by Congress, will serve to promote a higher appreciation of labor and the part it is taking in the development of our industries, for the upbuilding of which all are so earnestly striving.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Great Seal of the Territory to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the Capital, this 18th day of August, A. D. 1902.

(SEAL) ALEX. O. BRODIE.

BY THE GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM ENGLISH,

Ass't Secretary of the Territory.

Trouble.

It seems that some of the Arizona Rangers had trouble in a saloon recently at Bisbee, and in trying to straighten matters, Capt Mossman is up against it, as a petition is being circulated in Bisbee, asking Gov. Brodie for the captain's immediate removal. Mossman makes the following statement in the Daily Review in regard to the affair.

"That Ranger Grover had a difficulty with a gambler, Dan Callaghan, in which some words were passed, when Capt. Mossman interfered and placed Grover under arrest, who was in a boisterous mood. Officers Harrington and Jennings came in about that time and assisted in disarming Grover, in which Ranger Page assisted. In the scuffle that ensued the Rangers and officers Harrington and Jennings fell through the front door of the Orient and out onto the street. The trouble did not start in a poker game although the remark made to Callaghan by Ranger Grover referred to a game that had been running earlier in the day."

Captain Mossman states that Grover did not flourish his gun but was disarmed by Officer Harrington, while the gun was still in his scabbard.

The smelter of the United Verde has been shut down indefinitely, the management refusing to state when work would be resumed, further than it is likely to be from sixty to ninety days. A Chicago man has been brought on to handle the fire in the mine who says he can put it out with the proper apparatus. Company machinists made a machine for the work but it did not fill the requirements. It was then found necessary to send to Chicago for special machines, and which will arrive soon.

About fifteen miles from Summit station, on the Arizona and New Mexico railway, in the Horseshoe range of mountains, is an opal mine, operated about twenty years ago. Two miners were killed by the Indians in 1885 and the property has been neglected ever since, the miners evinently being convinced thru the killing of their comrades that opals bring bad luck.—Tombstone Prospector.
